

SHARE Teachers | Librarians

K-12 Education

Classroom Resources

Available with Internet service from the Iowa Communications Network.

»»» Access subject matter online resources for your classroom.

- Plan your next lesson with Exploratorium, Scratch, NOVA, and more!
- Explore US history with the Smithsonian American Art Museum.
- Have your students Ask a Biologist from Arizona State University.
- Use Mystery Skype to connect with students and classrooms all over the world.
- Talk to a real scientist with Skype a Scientist.
- Live interactive discussions with Internet2's Presidential Primary Sources Project.
- Access online workshops with Cyber.org.
- Watch Ok Go Sandbox music videos to explore various STEAM concepts.
- Connect your class to the North Dakota University Electron Microscopy Center.
- Access materials from the Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration.
- Attend an educator conference with the Truman Library.

These resources and MORE are available with your Internet service from the ICN.

Internet2's Community Anchor Program works with 46 state and regional nonprofit research and education networks, like the Iowa Communications Network (ICN), to help K-12 schools and other community anchor institutions use their connections to transform teaching and learning.